MISSION

The Academy of Puppetry and Allied Arts' purpose is to educate the public with respect to the presentation and performance of puppet arts and to encourage and foster the performance and presentation of puppet arts.

PROGRAM

The Academy of Puppetry and Allied Arts provides funding to subsidize tickets for students from local area schools to attend performances at the Bob Baker Marionette Theater and for literacy and language development resources.

BENEFITS

The program provides students and teachers in the Los Angeles area the opportunity to attend puppetry presentations and learn about the integration of puppetry arts with language arts, music, art, sculpture and crafts. The program fulfills the Academy of Puppetry and Allied Arts' mission of preserving puppetry arts and creative live entertainment for future generations of children and adults.

SUPPORT
